

Do You Need a Speaker for an Event, Church, Club, or Social Organization? We Can Help!

We are so passionate about the things we are doing in our community that we would like to spread the word. We are so grateful for all of our supporters but are often surprised when we meet someone who has never heard of Autauga Interfaith Care Center. Our ministry touches so many lives that we want everyone to know the great things that are happening in Autauga County. Call our office to schedule a guest speaker. 334-365-4080

Volunteer Appreciation Luncheon

As a small token of appreciation, the Board of Directors hosted a volunteer luncheon to celebrate and thank our staff. We had nearly 40 volunteers in attendance. What a great time for food, fun, and fellowship!

2018 VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR - JIM MASSEY

Jim Massey and his wife, Pat, have been involved with Autauga Interfaith Care Center for over 14 years. Jim has served as a Board of Director, has been our Board Treasurer, and is currently serving as our volunteer bookkeeper. Week after week Jim slips in, often times before we open, performs his duties and silently slips out never expecting any recognition for a job well done. We are so lucky to have Jim on our volunteer staff!

“It was about 18 years ago when my life would change forever. Anne Scanlon, a founding member of AICC, telephoned me to asked me to chair the newly formed finance committee. Of course, I gave her several reasons why I was not the right person for the job, but Anne was persistent and wouldn’t accept any of my excuses and asked me to pray on it and let her know as soon as possible of my decision. After praying, I couldn’t say no. Thinking back I can’t imagine my life without the AICC being part of it all these years. It seems like it was only yesterday when I was part of the first finance committee meeting and serving on that committee and as a member on the board of directors for several years. I take great pride being part of those years when the board developed many of the policies and procedures that provide the framework in which the AICC operates on today. Our expansion into the building we serve out of today was made possible through prayer and hard work by some of the most dedicated people I have ever known. Those prayers and the hard work of so many volunteers before my time have given us the facility and tools to serve those in need in Autauga County. Some years back, I volunteered to write the checks that pay the AICC bills. I’ll keep writing those checks as long I can or when I am told I am not needed anymore. I don’t like to think about that day because I can’t imagine life without me being part of Autauga Interfaith Care Center. Thanks Anne!”

Welcome New Board Members

In March of 2019 Autauga Interfaith Care Center announced four new Board of Directors. We are grateful for their service!

Pam Hattemer moved to Prattville when she was in the sixth grade. She graduated from Autauga County High School and then went on to the University of Alabama and UAB where she received a Bachelor of Science degree in Nursing. Six days after graduation, she married her high school sweetheart, Tommy Hattemer. She and Tommy have 2 grown children, one which decided to make Prattville her home, too. Pam is a member of First Presbyterian Church, is an avid gardener, loves to travel and supports the Crimson Tide.

Ryan Lassiter was born and raised in Montgomery. He moved to South Carolina as a teenager and there met his wife, Sarah. Sarah and Ryan have been married for 13 years and have four children; George who is 7, Henry who is 5, Katherine who is 4, and Matthew who is 18 months. Ryan has a BS in Civil Engineering from Clemson University and a masters in theology and ministry. Sandra White-Fowler moved back to Prattville in 2003 after finishing a career in Marketing and Public Relations. Since then, Saint Mark's Episcopal Church has been a large part of her life. It was there she was introduced to Autauga Interfaith Care Center. Sandra has numerous skills in planning and organization, working on tasks with others and taking responsibility in a leadership role that will benefit those served by AICC. Having worked with and having served on other non-profit boards, she is prepared for the commitment required. Sandra pledged to do the best job she can. Sandra enjoys working with plants, interior decorating, reading and playing backgammon. Her favorite pastime is cooking for a few friends and having some great conversation!

Joe Mathis grew up in rural Georgia and attended Georgia Southern University where he earned his bachelor's degree and later a master's degree from Southern Illinois University. After graduation he joined the United States Air Force, received his commission and entered AF Under Graduate Pilot Training. After receiving his wings he served in South East Asia (Vietnam) flying over 100 combat missions. Returning to the U.S. he and his family served in the Military Airlift Command stationed in California, South Carolina, Georgia, Kansas and Delaware flying worldwide missions in the C-141 and C-5 aircraft. Thank You for Your Service

Autauga Interfaith Care Center staff, Board Members, and volunteers would like to thank the current Board Members who have fulfilled their term and will be leaving us. Jackie Williams, Pastor Doug Davis, and Lyn Dunbar have been faithfully serving AICC for a combined total of 15 years. Although we are sad to see them go, we are so grateful to have worked with them during their years of service. We wish you all the best and hope to see you around the center often.
